Another little known Kirkbyite has passed on.

With very warm regards,

R.I.P. ROHANI BASRI 58-59 – 5-8-2018

This morning at 11.38 Balasubramaniam (58-59) circulated a message informing that Kirkbyite Rohani Basri from his batch had passed on earlier in the morning.

According to him, prayers would be held at Mesjid Al Ansar in Jalan Enggang Taman Keramat between 10.30 – 11.00 am.

It is a pity that so little is known of Rohani. She was never in our loop; her name never cropped up. She was never in the Kirkby news. Her name did not appear in our directory.

This is the first time that I'm hearing of Rohani Basri after college – that is 59 years later!

It is so sad that one of our family members should pass on without being in contact with the Kirkbyites.

This is why I keep emphasizing that when anyone knows of a Kirkbyite he/she should inform us so that we can establish the contact and bring the person into our loop.

Chong Lay recalls that Rohani was from his academic group and remembers her as a cheerful person.

Christ and Janet commented, “We were always a group who kept together and she was always cheerful and caring.”

According to Bala, “Rohani Basri was a great girl. I am sure those of us who knew her will miss her.”

Quite a number of Kirkbyites have expressed their condolences to her family through the KAM WhattsApp. I’m not sure whether thses messages of condolences will reach Rohan’s family. There is no address or contact number so far.

There is no way we could reach out to her family.

Yours in sorrow,

RAMA
