

R. I. P. TAN ENG HOOI (58-59): 5-1-2019

A posting by Bala in the KAM informed that our Kirkbyite Tan Eng Hooi (58-59) had passed away Saturday 5-1-2019.

Eng Hooi was my Senior in college.

In three months' time he would have been 81 years old.

The last couple of years he had not been well at all. The last two months he had been admitted to the hospital where he passed on yesterday evening.

Eng Hooi was a very friendly person. Before he fell sick he could carry on a conversation quite happily.

He could not attend the 2016 KL Kirkby Reunion. When I spoke to him about joining us for the gathering he informed me that he was going to the States to visit his son on 19 April.

I spoke to his wife, Chow Siew Ying (56-58) around 11 am. Siew Ying was appreciative of my call and shared information about Eng Hooi while he was in hospital the last two months. He was admitted on Deepavali day. 6-11-2018.

The wake will be held daily on Sunday and Monday at 8 pm at:

Room 18, Level 1,
Nirwana Memorial Centre
1 Jalan Sungei Besi
Kampung Baru Salak Selatan
57100 Kuala Lumpur

The funeral will take place on Tuesday, 9-1-2019.
